GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 28, 1909

TEN CENTS A WEEK

HARRIMAN REPORTED TO BE AFTER SEABOARD

The Great Wizzard of Finance is Now in the South Looking Over Situation.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 27.—It is being persistently rumored in financial circles of Washington that E. H. Harriman, the railroad magnate, working in harmony with Thomas F. Ryan, is to gain control of the Seaboard Air Line railway. Several times within the past few months this rumor has been current and while nothing has ever materialized from it, it has never been officially denied. Recently Mr. C. B. Ryan, general passenger agent of the Seaboard, visited Jacksonville and at that time he was asked if there was any truth in the rumor that Mr. Harriman was seeking to gain control of the Seaboard system. He seemed reticent about answering the question or discussing the matter and evasively remarked that personally he did not see why Mr. Harriman would seek to gain control of the Seaboard system, as he had outlets to the Atlantic at Baltimore and Savannah and the Gulf at New Orleans.

Mr. Harriman may or may not be seeking to take over the Seaboard, but there are good reasons to believe that he is. In reference to the matter The Washington Post has the following to say:

It is understood in financial circles in Washington and Baltimore that a serious contest for the control of the Seaboard Air Line railway has been entered into by the Williams family of Baltimore, on the one hand, and E. H. Harriman and Thomas F. Ryan, on the other. For some years the control of the road is supposed to have lain between the Williams people and Mr. Ryan, although, of course, the actual operation of the property has been conducted by receivers.

Working in Harmony.

The original receivers of the road are supposed to have been controlled by Mr. Ryan, but about a year and a half ago the Williams strength in the property was increased to such an extent that they were able to go into court and have their own receivers appointed to act in connection with those already acting for the railway interests. While Mr. Ryan is supposed to be retiring from business and while he has, since his purchases of the Equitable Life Insurance Society of New York, over the head of Harriman, been at odds with the wizard of the railroad world, it is understood that Mr. Ryan is acting in harmony with Mr. Harriman in his effort to get control of the Seaboard and operate it in connection with his other railroad properties.

If Mr. Ryan is working with Mr. Harriman now in this matter it is thought that he believes that in the forthcoming industrial boom in the South, Harriman will be in a position to do more for the Seaboard than any other man or interest. Harriman has for a long time been trying to get into the railroad field in the South, and the Seaboard offers about the only opportunity that is open to him.

The Southern railway is firmly in the hands of the Morgan people, as is Atlantic Coast Line and Louisville & Nashville, while control of the Chesapeake and Ohio and Norfolk and Western roads are so firmly anchored that not even the genius of Mr. Harriman in getting what he wants can change their control.

About two or three years ago when the ownership of the Central of Georgia was floating about Mr. Harriman quietly got control of that property and aside from his ownership of the Illinois Central, this was his first step into the South proper. He is supposed to have got control of some street railway lines in Augusta and Alken at about the same time.

Harriman in South.

Mr. Harriman is now in the South looking over the railroad situation in that section and incidentally talking over the situation with some stockholders of the Seaboard. If he gets control of that railroad, it is understood, arrangements have already been made for discharging the receivers, retiring the receivers' certificates, which have been issued in rather large amounts, and financing the road so that it will soon be able to take a commanding position in the transportation world of the South.

While the road never has been considered a heavy carrier of freight, yet it goes to the very centers of the freight distribution in the South and with its Western connection can readily be made a through line for freight from the West to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York over the Pennsylvania and to Norfolk direct over its own roadbed.

The acquisition of the road would give Mr. Harriman what he has long desired, a direct outlet for freight to the Atlantic seaboard. Under his ownership plans would be made for making Norfolk one of the great grain shipping ports of the United States.

WOOD'S BUILDING NOW BEING BUILT

CONTRACTOR DEMPSEY HAS A LARGE FORCE AT WORK.

Brick Work is Also Started and Entire Building to Be Rushed to Completion.

Work on the new brick building for C. D. Wood at Archer has already been commenced and Contractor Dempsey expects to rush the building through without delay.

The first consignment of brick, consisting of two carloads, has already arrived and masons were started on this part of the work Wednesday morning. The gang of carpenters have been at work all of the week rushing the building along as fast as possible.

As has already been stated, the building will be put up near the depot, and it is said that this section is fast building up and the business part of the town will eventually be moved to near the depot.

Besides this big building now going up there are several other vast improvements in contemplation in that place, which includes more brick store buildings, and in all Archer has a move on her for the coming year that will surprise the people generally.

DANCE AT MICANOPY.

Young People Have a Very Delightful Time.

Another of those highly enjoyable dances was given by Micany people at Feaster's Opera House on Wednesday evening which did much to enliven the place for the large number of visitors now stopping there.

The Gainesville Orchestra was engaged to furnish the music on this occasion, and this part of the evening's amusement was all that could be desired.

This is only another of these society events which the young folks have clubbed in to have the necessary amusement and pastime during the winter months, and they are meeting with the highest commendation from all of the young ladies for whose benefit they are given.

Besides the visitors from McIntosh, Boardman, Evinston and other points a large number of Gainesville young ladies attended.

Gainesville are visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. D. L. Branning.

Rev. William Pugh is out again, but continues quite weak and does not recuperate fast since his illness.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Ethel Laurine Jolly and Mr. William B. Harvard on February 2, at the Methodist church. Miss Jolly is one of our most charming young ladies, a daughter of Dr. Andrew and Mrs. Ella Jolly, and Mr. Harvard is a prominent business man of Live Oak.

Mr. Joseph Winter died on Sunday after a second attack similar to the first which occurred months ago. He had a complication of complaints. His death, however, was rather sudden. He was one of the older citizens, and was much esteemed by all who knew him. He had long been identified with the S. A. L. Railroad in one capacity or another, and was on the road when taken by his last illness and brought home unconscious. His funeral was largely attended, the services being conducted at the house and cemetery by Rev. T. L. Z. Barr, pastor of the Methodist church. Many floral offerings were furnished by friends, and the sympathy of the whole community is felt for the bereaved family, composed of a wife, three sons and a brother.

This spring-like weather will be disastrous to the peach crop if followed by a cold snap. The weather is also exceedingly dry.

COOPER'S SENTENCE HAS BEEN COMMUTED

Man Who Murdered Marshal of Punta Gorda is Sent to Prison for Life.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Jan. 27.—Isiah E. Cooper has been commuted to life imprisonment by the Board of Pardons of Florida. The Cooper case is one which has become well-known throughout the country, because he holds the distinction of having had three death warrants issued for him and then revoked by the Governors who issued them.

Cooper was convicted of killing J. H. Bowman, the town marshal of Punta Gorda, and has been in the DeSoto county jail at Arcadia since his conviction. The case was one of the most stubbornly fought ever recorded in the State of Florida. There was a reinvestigation by the grand jury, but this was without result so far as Cooper was concerned.

Governor Hung in Effigy.

Governor Jennings, who preceded Governor Broward in office, issued the first warrant for his death, but this was withdrawn just a few minutes before the execution of the doomed man. The feeling against Cooper was so intense that the Governor was hanged in effigy that night at Punta Gorda.

Twice during his administration of four years did Governor Broward issue death warrants for Cooper, but twice also did he withdraw the warrant, because of letters received by him from anonymous sources stating that Cooper was not the guilty man and that some day the truth would come out. Under the circumstances the Governor was impelled to prevent the execution of the death sentence.

Gilchrist Witness at Trial.

Gov. Gilchrist is the third Governor to sit on Cooper's case. Gov. Gilchrist is himself from the county of DeSoto, where the crime was committed, and was a witness in the case. The action of the Board of Pardons yesterday was not unexpected. Since the long incarceration of Cooper it is understood that public sentiment against him has changed considerably, and the action of the board will probably meet with general approval. The board passed the following resolution commuting his sentence to life imprisonment:

"Whereas, Isiah E. Cooper was convicted in 1904 of murder and has been in Arcadia jail under sentence of death for five years, and

"Whereas, two former Governors have declined to have death warrants executed, the Pardon Board decides that substantial justice will be meted out by commutation of sentence to imprisonment for life."

The sentence was commuted.

Talesman Sent Word To Judge to Go to the Devil

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 27.—When the second venire of five hundred talesmen was exhausted yesterday without the completion of the jury to try Col. Duncan Cooper, Robin Cooper and John D. Sharpe for the slaying of former Senator E. W. Carmack, Judge Hart announced that he would devote today to the hearing of charges against Jurors Leigh and Jackson. Meantime he drew another venire of five hundred names and the sheriff is summoning them for service Friday.

Just before court adjourned yesterday afternoon the State filed charges against Juror H. C. Jackson, claiming that he was incompetent because he was an habitual drunkard. The State has been trying since last week to get a hearing on the charges against Juror J. S. Leigh and its witnesses were summoned to appear today, when both cases will be gone into.

Hadn't Heard of the Killing.

There are now nine men in the box with charges against two of them. The failure of counsel to complete the jury from the first thousand talesmen, together with the fact that the number of those already selected may be reduced by the court, makes it extremely improbable that the twelve men will be sworn in before some time next week.

H. P. Jackson, a blacksmith, 55 years old, who lives in the country, has not read a paper for twenty-eight years and had heard Carmack was dead, he thought. He was eagerly accepted as juror No. 8.

Late yesterday the State gave notice that it would ask the removal from the box of Juror Jackson, on the charge that he is "an habitual drunkard" and otherwise unfit to serve on the case.

S. M. Hyde, a farmer 48 years old, who had never read a newspaper and who had no opinion, but was opposed to capital punishment, was accepted as juror No. 9.

"Tell Judge to Go to the Devil."

G. W. Keiber, one of the talesmen, when summoned, said:

"Tell the judge to go to the devil. I am too busy to serve as a juror."

The officer who served him reported to Judge Hart and Keiber was brought in.

"Sit down over there," said the court. "I won't send you to the devil right away, but I'll send you some place else after awhile." F. N. Grier was willing to sit on the jury, although he was a friend of John D. Sharpe, one of the defendants. Until two years ago, he would not vote for hanging.

"Since then," he said, "I've read Paul's writings, and he says, 'submit yourselves to all authority and ordinances that be over ye,' so I believe the law is authority."

"You would like to get off?" inquired Judge Anderson of the defense. "I sho' would."

"Then we will oblige you; stand aside."

The hearings today with reference to the two jurors, Leigh and Jackson, promise to be interesting.

Judge Hart allowed Keiber to go to his home last night, but ordered him to report promptly today for investigation of his alleged conduct while being summoned as a juror.

Attention, Stonewall Camp!

All who are behind with their dues will please send the amount in by the 1st day of March to T. B. Ellis, treasurer. Reports will then have to be made to headquarters of each member's standing in the camp. Please attend to this at once. By order

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Advice Against the Use of Harsh Purgatives and Physics.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver. This condition poisons the system with noxious gases and waste matter which naturally accumulates and which must be removed through the bowels before health can be restored.

Salts, ordinary pills and cathartics may be truly likened to dynamite. Through their harsh, irritating action they force a passage through the bowels, causing pain and damage to the delicate intestinal structure which weakens the whole system, and at best only produces temporary relief. The repeated use of such treatments cause chronic irritation of the stomach and bowels, hardens their tissues, deadens their nerves, stiffens their muscles and generally brings about an injurious habit which sometimes has fatal results.

We have a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of its great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when it fails to produce entire satisfaction. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies. We urge you to try them at our entire risk.

Rexall Orderlies are very pleasant to take, they act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effects, and they may be taken at any time without any inconvenience.

Rexall Orderlies overcome the drugging habit and cure constipation and all similar ailments, whether acute or chronic. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Price, 36 tablets, 25c, and 12 tablets, 10c. J. W. McCollum & Co., corner East Main and Union streets.

GILL—SHAWL MARRIAGE.

Popular Young Couple Join Future Destinies on Wednesday.

Mr. William T. Gill and Miss Minnie Shawl were happily married at the home of the bride's parents at Alachua on Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, the Rev. Parker of that place officiating.

The home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Shawl, had been neatly decorated for the occasion, and several friends of the contracting parties were present to wish them happiness through their married life. An elegant dinner was served following the ceremony, after which the bride and groom left for their future home in this city.

Mr. Gill has been a resident of Gainesville for the past two years, being connected with the Southern Express Company in the capacity of cashier, and has made a host of friends in the city who extend to him their hearty wishes in his new life.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shawl, and by her sweet disposition has made a host of friends both here and at Alachua who wish her much joy and happiness throughout her wedded life.

They will be at home in this city at 201 East Arlington street.

THE BIBLE CONFERENCE.

Very Interesting Program for This Morning and Evening.

The crowds attending the Bible Conference now in session at the Tabernacle seem to be increasing, and much interest is manifested in the good work being carried on there by experienced workers in the cause of Christ.

More out-of-town people are also attending these meetings, and it is expected that even more visitors will be here by next Sunday, which will close the first week of the meetings.

The Bible hour this morning will be conducted as usual by Rev. George E. Guille, whose beautifully spiritual interpretations of the scriptures are wonderfully helping those who attend. His subject for this morning will be "The Present Work of Christ as Mediator." In the afternoon and evening there will be two addresses on Sunday school work by Rev. F. C. Lauderbarn of New York. Dr. Lauderbarn is a man who thoroughly knows his subject, having been for five years chairman of the Sunday School Commission of Western Massachusetts and for the past two years a member of the New York Sunday School Commission, and in charge of the great Sunday school of St. Agnes Chapel in that city. His subject in the afternoon will be "The Child and the Curriculum," and in the evening "The Awkward Age." Every Sunday school teacher and officer in the city, and every parent ought to hear these talks and examine the display of Sunday school materials which Dr. Lauderbarn has brought with him to exemplify the various methods of instruction and organization.

Consists in punishment only when a child is actually bad. Some mothers think that all crying is badness—it's not. When your baby cries, look for pins or some external cause; if you can't find them give the baby White's Cream Vermifuge, as the chances are it is suffering from worms which keep it hungry and cross all the time. Pleasant to take—sure in its action. Price 25 cents. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Mrs. B. B. McCaa.

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Helena Augusta McCaa was born in Houston, Florida, August 7, 1870. Her parents, David Lang, colonel of Eighth Florida Confederate regiment, and Mary Campbell Lang moved to Tallahassee about the year 1885. It was here their daughter was married to Mr. Burwell Boykin McCaa. Mr. and Mrs. McCay lived in Tallahassee until about ten years ago when they moved to Jacksonville and from there to Fortmouth, Va., in which city Mrs.
McCaa passed away on Saturday, the 24 inst., after an illness of twelve days.

Mrs. McCaa always remembered her girlhood home with deep affection. It was here that there came to her the evening joys of her young womanhood, also the most poignant griefs.
Her beloved mother lay in God's acre at the foot of one of Tallahassee's old clay hills, and beside her two little ones that for a few brief months had brought to the young wife the glory of motherhood. Here were hours of friends and familiar scenes never forgotten, never faded into distant memories, but loved, longed for and sorely missed, and so, when she had laid aside the pleasures and pains of life, loving thought planned to bring her home again, and loving hands laid her where she would have wished to be.

Small in body but large in soul, lovely, gentle and loving, her cheery disposition and charity of thought to all men, made for her friends, admiring and sincere, wherever she went,
and many were the hearts in this city that were saddened when the news came that she had passed on into the great beyond.

The burial services were read in St.
John's Episcopal church—the church in which she had been married and into which she had brought her children for baptism. The casket was laden with flowers, the last tribute of loving friends, and they who bore her were friends of her youth grown to manhood. Her husband and father, brother and friends stood near until nothing was left but a flower-covered mound and a memory fragrant with the order of the sanctity of a life well spent, and of an example left for the glorious inheritance of her children. A young son and two little daughters survive to be their bereaved father's and grandfather's comfort and hope.

Besides Mr. McCaa and Col. Lang
there were present at the burial relatives and friends who had come up from other parts of the State.
These were: Mr. Campbell Lang of Old Town, Mrs. Henry C. Denton of Gainesville, Mr. T. M. Cox, Mr. S.
Daniel, Mr. T. and Mrs. Louis S.
Puck, Mrs. F. A. Gibbons, Mr. Christo-

Little Elsie Crown.

(Contributed.)

On last Tuesday the messenger of death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Crown of Rocky Point and carried away their dear little baby, Elsie, to be with God and the good.
Yes, she is dead. Upon her little bed, in that solemn stillness that is painful to witness, she lay, as if in sleep, so beautiful and calm. So free from pain, so fair to look upon, she seemed a creature fresh from the hand of God and waiting for the breath of life, and not one who had so recently passed the portals of death.

As I bent over her precious little form and looked into her pale sweet face, I thought: It is not in this world that heaven's justice ends; think what it is compared to the world to which her young spirit has winged its early flight, and tell me, if one deliberate wish, expressed in solemn terms above this bed, could call her back from heaven to this life, which of us all would utter it? True, the little hands that waved us howdy and farewell are folded above a little heart that beats no more; the cradle is empty, the home is sad, the baby gone, but that precious bud of earth must bloom in

MARTIN MAKES STATEMENT.

Claims His Boys Were Not Within a Mile of Place.

Rev. W. J. Martin, father of the boys charged with having committed rape at Wilcox, was in the city Wednesday, and says that there will be no trouble about his boys and young Powers proving that they knew nothing of the occurrence there on Sunday night.

He claims that the boys were fully a half-mile or more away from the scene at the time the crime was supposed to have been committed, and that this fact can be substantially proven by a large number of witnesses.

As for the drinking part, he was satisfied that his boys did not drink, and he was among the first on the scene shortly after the shooting and only one shot was fired, instead of several.

We make this statement in justice to Mr. Martin, who claims that he will bring all of the above and more, too, out at the hearing when the boys are tried on the serious charge. "Uncle Jack," as he is familiarly known, is one of the best men in the county, and his word has never been disputed by his neighbors.

Living Lights of the Sea.

One of the marine curiosities fished from the bottom of the Indian ocean by a dredging vessel chartered by the Calcutta Society of Natural History was a mammoth sea crab, which continually emitted a bright white light, similar to that seen in the spasmodic flashes of phosphorescent luminosity kindled by the common fireflies. The oddlity was captured in daytime and placed in a large tank, nothing peculiar except its immense size being noticeable in the broad glare of the tropical sun. At night, however, when all was in pitchy darkness, the crab surprised the naturalists by lighting up the tank so that all the other sea creatures, great and small, occupying the same tank could be plainly seen.
When the luminous crustacean was prodded with a pole he emitted flashes of light, which enabled the experimenters to read small print, even though otherwise they were in total darkness.—London Chronicle.

German Lotteries.

In an article on the lotteries the Berliner Tageblatt says there are three ways by which wealth is acquired—by work, which is long and tedious; by dishonesty, which is a precarious proceeding, and by gambling. The number of persons who prefer the last named method, says the writer, is large in the German realm, for there the great lotteries thrive best. There are seven of these under the management of the government, and they distribute $100,000,000 in prizes. The anxiety to secure a part of this amount has destroyed the happiness of thousands of households and has diverted thousands of good men from honest industry and thrift to idleness and poverty. In the seven lotteries there are about 22,000 winners a year, but of these only about 650 receive prizes of more than 1,000 marks each.

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF FLORIDA

The city council of Jacksonville has passed an ordinance fixing the rates charged by telephone companies in that city.

An expert after examining the Jacksonville electric light plant reports that the city has made a profit of $530,000 since the purchase of the plant in 1895.

Tampa has organized a golf club that will have links in the neighborhood of the Country Club. Col. Gillespi, the well-known Sarasota golf expert, has been asked to lay out the grounds.

Eustis is proud of its boat club. The great lakes lying before and near that beautiful little city give abundant opportunity for aquatic sports. The club will hold its third celebration of Washington's Birthday this year and expects to have 100 boats on Lake Eustis that day under the command of Commander George Scott. The celebration will be an elaborate affair. The new clubhouse and pier cost $3,000.

The Devilish in Action.

A naturalist who observed devilfishes in action says that he thought no more diabolical creature could be imagined. They resembled enormous bats and in following one another around in a circle raised the outer tip of one of the long winglike fins high out of the water in a graceful curve, the other being deeply submerged. They might be seen now gliding down with a flying motion of the wings, sweeping, gyrating upward with a twisting vertical motion marvelous in its perfect grace; now they dashed white, again black, so that one would say they were rolling over and over, turning somersaults. While swimming along the two great arms or feelers of the devilfish are whirled about in constant motion, like the tentacles of a squid. When these tentacles come in contact with anything they close upon it. It is generally believed that this clasping, although at times doing considerable harm to fishermen and their boats, is largely automatic and that, upon the whole, the devilfish is timid rather than a fighter.

The Rust of Custom.

The bitterness toward innovation is just the same in an army as out of it, but perhaps with more reason. A new thing cannot possibly be accepted until it has proved itself better than that which it displaces. The first cannons were possibly rejected, and the Christian inventor took them to the Turk, who used them at the siege of Constantinople. The first firearms were bitterly opposed because they destroyed the soldierly bearing of the troops. The British navy strenuously objected to the first large guns because one charge would cost as much as one of Nelson's broadsides. Ericsson's Monitor met with more opposition in Washington than it did in Hampton Roads. At the outbreak of the civil war it is said that congress ordered the adoption of the new weapon, over the objection of the chief of ordnance, who kept a specimen of the old one in his office to show visitors how good it was.—Army and Navy Life.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

AFTER FOUR YEARS OF MISERY

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Baltimore, Md.—"For four years my life was a misery to me. I suffered from irregularities, terrible dragging sensations, extreme nervousness, and that all gone feeling in my stomach. I had given up hope of ever being well when I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Then I felt as though new life had been given me, and I am recommending it to all my friends."—Mrs. W. S. Ford, 1938 Lansdowne St., Baltimore, Md.

The most successful remedy in this country for the cure of all forms of female complaints is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has stood the test of years and to-day is more widely and successfully used than any other female remedy. It has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means had failed.

If you are suffering from any of these ailments, don't give up hope until you have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. She has guided thousands to health, free of charge.

Women and New Money.

The cashier, as usual, paid the loom boss in new money—crisp, sweet smelling bank notes that was pleasant to handle.

"But why is it, George," he asked, "that you insist upon new money always? I know you hand every cent of it to your wife."

The loom boss chuckled.

"It's easy to see you ain't a married man, Will," said he. "Otherwise you'd know woman's nature better and wouldn't need to be told the advantage of taking home new money to the wife. The explanation is, Will, that women are so fond of new money that they hate to part with it. It makes them economical. They bargain for this, they deny themselves that, and the upshot is that at the end of each week they have a tidy little sum, all brand new, put by in a stocking or a teapot. It pays, Will, to give the wife new money. It pays something like 20 per cent."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A TITLE AND A UNIFORM.

How Colonel Johnson Got the One and Bought the Other.

"Where did you get your military title?" was asked of Colonel Johnson. "Charlie Culberson made me take it when he was governor of Texas," replied the Houston editor. "I told him I might have to wear a title, but I'd be hanged if I'd wear a uniform. One day I met the governor on the street, and he said, 'Hello, Bill.'"

"Hello, Charlie," I replied. "Is that the proper manner to address your commanding officer?" he demanded sternly. "Stand up straight, salute and say 'Governor.' Where's your uniform?"

"The office isn't worth $125 of gold lace," I replied hotly.

"About face! March!" commanded the governor, and he marched me into a tailor shop.

"Make this man a colonel's uniform and send the bill to me," he said.

"I couldn't stand for that, so I said, 'I give you to understand, sir, if I've got to be a colonel I can buy my own uniform and put on as much gold lace as any man in Texas.'"

"That's how I came to be a colonel and to have for sale cheap as fine a military uniform as ever was made in the south."—Exchange.

Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a fault finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

EDITOR HARRIS' TRIP.

Hon. Frank Harris, editor of The Ocala Daily Banner, recently returned from a trip to Key West. After referring to Jacksonville's phenomenal progress he continues his write-up of his trip as follows:

"Though the oldest city in the western world, St. Augustine, as it is today, is the creation of Mr. Flagler. Much of the prettiest portion of it he redeemed from the sea.

"When he first beheld it—its narrow streets and quaint buildings, its old fort and city gates—his wonderful intuition instantly told him that it would make an ideal tourist retreat, and in the formulation of his plans to this end the Ponce de Leon, the Alcazar and the Cordova hotels were mere evolutions of the wonderful intellect that made the East Coast the Appian Way and the rendezvous of the tourist travel of the United States.

"Fashion empties itself on St. Augustine and the whirl of society in winter begins and ends there.

"For many years yet to come it will be the tourist Mecca, and more and more so after the completion of the Key West extension and the Panama canal.

"The hotels of St. Augustine are noted for their elegance, grandeur and beauty of design, and when the season is at its height no lovelier vision is allotted to man than to behold the crowds of well dressed men and handsomely gowned women that make their homes under the roofs of these luxurious abodes.

"It is said that no scene of earth is more brilliant than a ball at the Ponce de Leon. The innumerable colored electric jets, issuing from crystal globes and golden candelabra, emeralds, rubies, opals, pearls, sapphires, diamonds, glinting from the bosoms and brows of the fair participants, add lustre to the scene and make it a picture rivaling the courts of royalty.

"As you travel on down the peninsula the scenery becomes more beautiful and tropical in appearance and the atmosphere more soothing and delightful.

"We met a German gentleman who said that he had traveled in Italy, Sicily, France and Spain, yet nowhere is there such a climate as there is on the southern East Coast of Florida, and that it is compelled to attract the tourist travel of both hemispheres.

"At Palm Beach, between Lake Worth and the ocean, Mr. Flagler has erected the largest hotel in the world, and as everything conspires to make this spot a jewel in beauty, he has made it his home and spends most of the winter months there. Whitehall, his residence, is a luxurious palace, and the grounds which adjoin those of the Royal Poinciana and the Breakers contain every rare plant and flower that will thrive in the tropics, and it is, indeed, a fairy land.

"At Ormond, Miami, Nassau and at Knight's Key Mr. Flagler has built his system of hotels that has now become famous all over the world. The most colossal ones are yet to be constructed, one at Key West and the other in Havana. When these two shall have been finished he will then have an even dozen, and they are without a parallel in the world's records. When it is stated that the opening of these hotels alone costs $250,000 some idea of their grandeur can be ascertained.

"When Mr. Flagler first entered upon his work of development and began the erection of his hotels and the construction of his railroad they were referred to as 'Flagler's folly,' yet while still in their infancy, they are paying dividends on their investment, and the earning capacity of the road is but eighty dollars less per mile than the Atlantic Coast Line, one of the oldest established lines in the State. What will it be when the extension to Key West is completed and it becomes the feeder for Panama canal?

"Old-timers held up their hands in horror when it was proposed to bring the pine lands along this route into cultivation and proclaimed that they would not sprout cow peas, yet they now present a vision of the finest pineapple farms that can be found anywhere, outstripping in size and quality the far-famed pineapples of Cuba.

"The construction of the Florida East Coast railway has given a new birth to the tomato and has made it indeed the king of vegetables, and its limitations have not yet been reached. There is one tomato farm on this route containing one thousand acres, and the growing of tomatoes has made fortunes for many who had the nerve to take advantage of the early opportunities that the building of this road afforded.

"The orange, the lemon and the lime thrive well in that region, but it seems to be particularly adapted to the cultivation of the grapefruit. The yield is large and the fruit bright and luscious, and is without spot or blemish.

"It seems almost miraculous, and yet it is true, that holes in the rock have to be dynamited to plant the young trees, yet they grow to perfection and stand the drouth better than the trees planted in a sandy or loamy soil.

"From Knight's Key to Key West the distance is forty-five miles, and eighty per cent of the unfinished portion of the road is already completed, and as the contractors are now more familiar with the work the remainder of the construction is regarded as an easy proposition, and in less than two years this mighty project will have been completed.

"The people of the Island City are looking with longing eyes to the time when they will hear the whistle of the first locomotive, and no victorious military chieftain will be covered with greater honors than will the projector of this great enterprise. He will be decorated with laurels and the people there will rise up as one man and call him blessed.

"They have felt all along as though they have been cut off from the world and formed a part and parcel to themselves, having no kinship with the balance of the State or nation. They will then feel that they are bone of its bone and flesh of its flesh, and will be in touch with its pulse beats.

"Already big things are in anticipation and big cigar plants are being established. Among the most famous are those of the Ruy Lopez company, the Havana-American, the Cortez company, the E. H. Gatto Cigar company, the Ferdinand Hirsch company, and the Key Westers say that the 'Island City' will be the largest cigar manufacturing market in the world.

"The building of the Florida East Coast railway, joining Key West to the main land, opens up untold possibilities.

"In the language of Governor Bloxham, 'the mind halts at their contemplation.'"

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

FOR MEN AND WOMEN. Use Big 64 for annular discharges, inflammations, irritations or ulceration of mucous membranes. Painless, and not addictive. Sold by Druggists or sent in plain wrapper by express, prepaid, 64¢ per bottle, 62¢ per dozen. Circular sent on request.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Brooklyn Eagle says: "For Robert E. Lee, North and South have only words of admiration and respectful memory. If Congress were to provide for an educational institution in the South as a memorial to Lee, it would be criticised nowhere. The President's suggestion is a thoughtful one."

The Norfolk Landmark says: "The petition law which the President is trying to establish would be much worse in its injurious effect upon the nation than any alien law which California demagogues could pet that State to enact. That is a fact which Mr. Roosevelt ought not to overlook while he is calling on California to be reasonable and consider the public interest. His appeal will have more consistency if he observes his own doctrine."

The Hartford Times says: "The Nebraska Legislature is likely to pass and the Governor to sign a bill which will introduce in that State the Oregon plan of pledging members of the Legislature in regard to the choice of United States Senators. This measure, which has the approval of W. J. Bryan, is expected to result in his election to the Senate in 1911. If such an election will take him out of the field as a Presidential candidate the whole country will rejoice."

The Mobile Register says: "Mr. Taft has flown the 'My Policies' coop by commending the state of single blessedness. His apostasy was made public at Athens, Ga., last week when he advised the young ladies at the State normal school not to regard matrimony as a necessity. It is safe to say, knowing the kind of girls produced in Georgia, that he had no special reference to the individuals composing his audience at the time he spoke, but was laying down a general proposition. Taking the new Taft doctrine on matrimony as a basis one is forced to the conclusion that the cry of 'four years more of the full perambulator' was merely campaign talk."

One of the greatest attractions of Gainesville to Northern visitors is our magnificent shade trees, yet some of the officials would cut down these beautiful ornaments at every opportunity. No tree should be cut down unless it is dead, and many of them which have been removed in the past could have been saved with proper attention.

Mock orange trees have been transplanted on the south side of the court house. This is an evergreen and makes a fine shade tree, as well as one of the best of hedges. The best way to grow one of these hedges is by planting seed, which can be gathered by the bushel in the hammocks.

The shaded tobacco growers of Leon county are preparing to put in a full crop this season, although they still have last year's crop on hand. However, it is excellent tobacco and they are satisfied they will find a market.

Parties are warned not to take subscribers' papers or to mutilate them by tearing out the coupon. If the practice does not cease someone will be hauled up before the court.

Isn't there something which only a want ad. can do for you today?

GAINESVILLE, —THE— University City.

Gainesville is conceded to be the most enterprising as well as the most beautiful city in the interior of Florida. It is located in the very center of the State, half way between the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts, surrounded by lands of such fertility as to be capable of producing a great variety of crops; in the heart of the truck-growing, phosphate and naval stores belt. She has the best educational advantages in the State, good churches, with edifices which are superior to any town of its size in Florida, with large and consistent congregations; has a climate which cannot be excelled for health and pleasure. All these natural advantages, combined with a progressive and enterprising cosmopolitan citizenship, are sure to make a big city.

There are many natural attractions in close proximity to the city, some of which are Alachua Sink, Paine's Prairie, the Devil's Mill Hopper, Warren's Cave, and Lake Newnan, all of which are reached by private conveyance.

Spring Park Stock Farm, the largest and finest live stock farm in the State, is only eight miles west of the city and is reached by a good hard road, affording a most pleasant drive.

The farmers of Alachua county, of which Gainesville is the county seat, "live at home and board at the same place." The temperature is very uniform, scarcely ever reaching the nineties in summer or the twenties in winter. The population of Gainesville is about eight thousand, representing nearly every nationality on the face of the earth, and strangers always meet with a hearty welcome.

The University of Florida for young men and the National Agricultural Experiment Station are located within the corporate limits of the city. In fact, Gainesville has so many things that we must be pardoned if we omit a few of them in the following enumeration of what

SOIL PREPARATION

By JOHN M. SCOTT

—The Florida Agricultural Experiment Station—

A thorough preparation of the soil is necessary to produce the largest crop of any kind. Whatever crop is to be grown, the main point is to get the soil in the best possible condition for a good seed-bed. Such preparation retains the soil moisture, and puts the soil into the proper physical condition for the growth of roots. The thorough preparation of the seed-bed reduces the cost of cultivation during the growth of the crop by at least one-half.

EARLY PLOWING.

During the spring planting season the ground is usually dry. The past two seasons, for instance, have been too dry for good germination, excepting where the land was prepared early. Hence it is necessary to till the soil early so as to retain a large percentage of the moisture which was received during the fall and winter. A large amount of moisture can be kept in the soil for a considerable time by proper preparation and later cultivation. We should plow early in the winter (say, in January), and if there is much grass or weed on the ground the plowing should be deep enough to bury everything out of sight.

THE SOIL MULCH.

As soon as the land is plowed it should be harrowed thoroughly, and again harrowed at intervals of about ten days or two weeks until the crop is planted. Just when the harrowing should be done will depend on the weather, but the field should be harrowed often enough to retain a good soil mulch; that is, the surface of the soil, to the depth of one or two inches, should be kept thoroughly pulverized. This will prevent a large part of the moisture from evaporating and being lost before the crop is planted. It is especially important to run the harrow over the ground after every rain. This breaks the slight surface crust that is apt to form, and prevents the loss of moisture to the air. In the dry spring of last year, we were able, by this method, to retain sufficient moisture in the soil to germinate cotton, corn, and velvet bean seed. This surface cultivation should be continued even after plowing. The correct agricultural practice is to plow deep when preparing the seed-bed, and give shallow cultivation during the growth of the crop.

Our best farmers have learned from experience that it is better to plow up the whole field; for listing between the old rows and leaving the middles to be broken out later puts the land in the worst possible shape for retaining the moisture which is already there, and also, for absorbing any rain that may fall.

PREVENTING WASTE OF FERTILIZER.

It is well-known that we often lose from 50 to 75 per cent. of the value of the fertilizer by not having the soil in proper condition at the time of planting. By thorough preparation of the soil we not only save a large part of the fertilizer we apply each year, but at the same time we bring about such conditions as tend to hasten plant growth. We also increase the water-holding capacity of the soil by adding organic material to it, through plowing under the remains of plants left on the land by the previous crop. A soil may contain enough available plant food to produce a heavy crop; but may be so wanting in humus that it cannot hold moisture enough to germinate the seed well, or to make a satisfactory growth of the crop.

THE ADVANTAGES OF EARLY PLOWING.

When the land is prepared early in the season more time is given for the raw soil to weather, and for all trash and weeds plowed under to decay. A better seed-bed is insured; for more time can be given to the work, and the soil also has time to settle and become firm enough to establish capillarity between the subsoil and the plowed soil, so as to insure sufficient moisture in the seed-bed for germination and to tide the growing crop over a long dry period.

TELEPHONE TALKS

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features of our service, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies.

We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell systems, operating in various sections of the country, are uniform in their equipment and in their methods of operating.

Only by reason of this close traffic arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to go to a Bell Telephone almost anywhere, ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and our plant here is an important link in this great chain.

GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 28, 1909

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

HARRIMAN REPORTED TO BE AFTER SEABOARD

The Great Wizzard of Finance is Now in the South Looking Over Situation.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 27.—It is being persistently rumored in financial circles of Washington that E. H. Harriman, the railroad magnate, working in harmony with Thomas F. Ryan, is to gain control of the Seaboard Air Line railway. Several times within the past few months this rumor has been current and while nothing has ever materialized from it, it has never been officially denied. Recently Mr. C. H. Ryan, general passenger agent of the Seaboard, visited Jacksonville and at that time he was asked if there was any truth in the rumor that Mr. Harriman was seeking to gain control of the Seaboard system. He seemed reticent about answering the question or discussing the matter and evasively remarked that personally he did not know why Mr. Harriman would seek to gain control of the Seaboard system, as he had outlets to the Atlantic at Baltimore and Savannah and the Gulf at New Orleans.

Mr. Harriman may or may not be seeking to take over the Seaboard, but there are good reasons to believe that he is. In reference to the matter The Washington Post has the following to say:

It is understood in financial circles in Washington and Baltimore that a serious contest for the control of the Seaboard Air Line railway has been entered into by the Williams family of Baltimore, on the one hand, and E. H. Harriman and Thomas F. Ryan, on the other. For some years the control of the road is supposed to have lain between the Williams people and Mr. Ryan, although, of course, the actual operation of the property has been conducted by receivers.

Working in Harmony.

The original receivers of the road are supposed to have been controlled by Mr. Ryan, but about a year and a half ago the Williams strength in the property was increased to such an extent that they were able to go into court and have their own receivers appointed to act in connection with those already acting for the railway interests. While Mr. Ryan is supposed to be retiring from business and while he has, since his purchases of the Equitable Life Insurance Society of New York, over the head of Harriman, been at odds with the wizzard of the railroad world, it is understood that Mr. Ryan is acting in harmony with Mr. Harriman in his effort to get control of the Seaboard and operate it in connection with his other railroad properties.

If Mr. Ryan is working with Mr. Harriman now in this matter it is thought that he believes that in the forthcoming industrial boom in the South, Harriman will be in a position to do more for the Seaboard than any other man or interest. Harriman has for a long time been trying to get into the railroad field in the South, and the Seaboard offers about the only opportunity that is open to him.

The Southern railway is firmly in the hands of the Morgan people, as is Atlantic Coast Line and Louisville & Nashville, while control of the Chesapeake and Ohio and Norfolk and Western roads are so firmly anchored that not even the genius of Mr. Harriman in getting what he wants can change their control.

About two or three years ago when the ownership of the Central of Georgia was floating about Mr. Harriman quietly got control of that property and aside from his ownership of the Illinois Central, this was his first step into the South proper. He is supposed to have got control of some street railway lines in Augusta and Aiken at about the same time.

Harriman in South.

Mr. Harriman is now in the South looking over the railroad situation in that section and incidentally talking over the situation with some stockholders of the Seaboard. If he gets control of that railroad, it is understood, arrangements have already been made for discharging the receivers, retiring the receivers' certificates, which have been issued in rather large amounts, and financing the road so that it will soon be able to take a commanding position in the transportation world of the South.

While the road never has been considered a heavy carrier of freight, yet it goes to the very centers of the freight distribution in the South and with its Western connection can readily be made a through line for freight from the West to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York over the Pennsylvania and to Norfolk direct over its own roadbed.

The acquisition of the road would give Mr. Harriman what he has long desired, a direct outlet for freight to the Atlantic seaboard. Under his ownership plans would be made for making Norfolk one of the great grain shipping ports of the United States.

DANCE AT MICANOPY.

Young People Have a Very Delightful Time.

Another of those highly enjoyable dances was given by Micanopy people at Feaster's Opera House on Wednesday evening which did much to enliven the place for the large number of visitors now stopping there.

The Gainesville Orchestra was engaged to furnish the music on this occasion, and this part of the evening's amusement was all that could be desired.

This is only another of these society events which the young folks have clubbed in to have the necessary amusement and pastime during the winter months, and they are meeting with the highest commendation from all of the young ladies for whose benefit they are given.

Besides the visitors from McIntosh, Boardman, Evinston and other points a large number of Gainesville young ladies attended.

Gainesville are visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. D. L. Branning.

Rev. William Pugh is out again, but continues quite weak and does not recuperate fast since his illness.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Ethel Laurine Jolly and Mr. William B. Harvard on February 2, at the Methodist church. Miss Jolly is one of our most charming young ladies, a daughter of Dr. Andrew and Mrs. Ella Jolly, and Mr. Harvard is a prominent business man of Live Oak.

Mr. Joseph Winter died on Sunday after a second attack similar to the first which occurred months ago. He had a complication of complaints. His death, however, was rather sudden. He was one of the older citizens, and was much esteemed by all who knew him. He had long been identified with the S. A. L. Railroad in one capacity or another, and was on the road when taken by his last illness and brought home unconscious. His funeral was largely attended, the services being conducted at the house and cemetery by Rev. T. L. Z. Barr, pastor of the Methodist church. Many floral offerings were furnished by friends, and the sympathy of the whole community is felt for the bereaved family, composed of a wife, three sons and a brother.

This spring-like weather will be disastrous to the peach crop if followed by a cold snap. The weather is also exceedingly dry.

COOPER'S SENTENCE HAS BEEN COMMUTED

Man Who Murdered Marshal of Punta Gorda is Sent to Prison for Life.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Jan. 27.—

Isalah E. Cooper has been commuted to life imprisonment by the Board of Pardons of Florida. The Cooper case is one which has become well-known throughout the country, because he holds the distinction of having had three death warrants issued for him and then revoked by the Governors who issued them.

Cooper was convicted of killing J. H. Bowman, the town marshal of Punta Gorda, and has been in the DeSoto county jail at Arcadia since his conviction. The case was one of the most stubbornly fought ever recorded in the State of Florida. There was a reinvestigation by the grand jury, but this was without result so far as Cooper was concerned.

Governor Hung in Effigy.

Governor Jennings, who preceded Governor Broward in office, issued the first warrant for his death, but this was withdrawn just a few minutes before the execution of the doomed man. The feeling against Cooper was so intense that the Governor was hanged in effigy that night at Punta Gorda.

Twice during his administration of four years did Governor Broward issue death warrants for Cooper, but twice also did he withdraw the warrant, because of letters received by him from anonymous sources stating that Cooper was not the guilty man and that some day the truth would come out. Under the circumstances the Governor was impelled to prevent the execution of the death sentence.

Gilchrist Witness at Trial.

Gov. Gilchrist is the third Governor to sit on Cooper's case. Gov. Gilchrist is himself from the county of DeSoto, where the crime was committed, and was a witness in the case. The action of the Board of Pardons yesterday was not unexpected. Since the long incarceration of Cooper it is understood that public sentiment against him has changed considerably, and the action of the board will probably meet with general approval. The board passed the following resolution commuting his sentence to life imprisonment:

"Whereas, Isiah E. Cooper was convicted in 1904 of murder and has been in Arcadia jail under sentence of death for five years, and

The sentence was commuted.

Talesman Sent Word To Judge to Go to the Devil

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 27.—When the second venire of five hundred talesmen was exhausted yesterday without the completion of the jury to try Col. Duncan Cooper, Robin Cooper and John D. Sharpe for the slaying of former Senator E. W. Carmack, Judge Hart announced that he would devote today to the hearing of charges against Jurors Leigh and Jackson. Meantime he drew another venire of five hundred names and the sheriff is summoning them for service Friday.

Just before court adjourned yesterday afternoon the State filed charges against Juror H. C. Jackson, claiming that he was incompetent because he was an habitual drunkard. The State has been trying since last week to get a hearing on the charges against Juror J. S. Leigh and its witnesses were summoned to appear today, when both cases will be gone into.

Hadn't Heard of the Killing.

There are now nine men in the box with charges against two of them. The failure of counsel to complete the jury from the first thousand talesmen, together with the fact that the number of those already selected may be reduced by the court, makes it extremely improbable that the twelve men will be sworn in before some time next week.

H. P. Jackson, a blacksmith, 55 years old, who lives in the country, has not read a paper for twenty-eight years and had heard Carmack was dead, he thought. He was eagerly accepted as juror No. 8.

Late yesterday the State gave notice that it would ask the removal from the box of Juror Jackson, on the charge that he is "an habitual drunkard" and otherwise unfit to serve on the case.

S. M. Hyde, a farmer 48 years old, who had never read a newspaper and who had no opinion, but was opposed to capital punishment, was accepted as juror No. 9.

"Tell Judge to Go to the Devil."

G. W. Kelber, one of the talesmen, when summoned, said:

"Tell the judge to go to the devil. I am too busy to serve as a juror."

The officer who served him reported to Judge Hart and Kelber was brought in.

"Sit down over there," said the court. "I won't send you to the devil right away, but I'll send you some place else after awhile." F. N. Grier was willing to sit on the jury, although he was a friend of John D. Sharpe, one of the defendants. Until two years ago, he would not vote for hanging.

"Since then," he said, "I've read Paul's writings, and he says, 'submit yourselves to all authority and ordinances that be over ye,' so I believe the law is authority."

"You would like to get off," inquired Judge Anderson of the defense. "I sho' would."

"Then we will oblige you; stand aside."

The hearings today with reference to the two jurors, Leigh and Jackson, promise to be interesting.

Judge Hart allowed Kelber to go to his home last night, but ordered him to report promptly today for investigation of his alleged conduct while being summoned as a juror.

Attention, Stonewall Camp!

All who are behind with their dues will please send the amount in by the 1st day of March to T. B. Ellis, treasurer. Reports will then have to be made to headquarters of each member's standing in the camp. Please attend to this at once. By order

Negro Boy Accidentally Killed His Companion

WALDO, Jan. 27.—Albert Atwater is just able to be up from the effects of an accidental gunshot wound received at his own hands sometime ago.

G. W. Scarborough is in the lead in the production and sale of strawberries, having realized $6 and $8 a crate of thirty-two quarts. The berry is a beauty and extra large.

Mrs. W. B. Ennis has returned to Tampa, after a visit of some weeks to relatives here and at Starke.

J. B. Davis would have lost a fine brood mare, but for the timely attendance of a veterinarian from Gainesville.

Jasper Donaldson is at his home a few miles out of town suffering from a case of appendicitis. An operation is contemplated later. He has had Dr. Pierce of this place and Dr. DePass and McKinstry of Gainesville attending him.

A son of Felix English accidentally shot another colored boy, a son of Cheatham, with a shotgun on Saturday evening, from which the latter died in a few minutes.

Two additional teachers, Miss Daisy Poole and Miss Wise, have been assigned to our public school, the increased attendance making their services necessary.

Postmaster Morse of Earleton, who is also merchant and mill man, was transacting business in town Saturday.

NINETEEN SOLID CARS OF COTTON SHIPPED

FROM SANTA FE STATION THIS SEASON.

Farmers of Northern Alachua Are in Good Condition. With Plenty of Hog and Hominy.

SANTA FE, Jan. 25.—The long cotton growers of this and Bland section, through Capt. J. L. Mathews, made another large sale of cotton last week, which takes the larger bulk of the cotton of 1908. The sale was made to the Brantley Company of Blackshear, Ga., at 17 and 18 cents, which is below the price of production, though the best that could be done. It took ten solid cars to carry it off. The previous sale took nine solid cars, making in all nineteen solid cars, besides some local shipments from this station. Who will say that Santa Fe is not in the cotton belt?

The amount received by the farmers for the cotton sold last week will put near $30,000 in circulation in this community alone. The farmers in this part of the community are as a rule in good shape, with full smoke houses and barns, which assures them of hog and old hominy, with good schools, churches and lands, but, alas! sorry public roads.

The farmers are busy preparing for another crop. Rain is badly needed, in fact, stock is suffering for water, as only in the immediate vicinity of the river or spring branches can they get sufficient water, unless watered from wells.

James and John Holder of Citronelle are visiting relatives here this week.

Santa Fe is in need of a better and larger depot and warehouse. The make-shift that we have is an eye sore to this intelligent community. For the amount of freight handled here we think the company could and should give better facilities for the comfort of the shippers and the traveling public.

DEATH OF MR. WINTER.

Died at His Home of Acute Indigestion
on Sunday.

News was received in this city Monday of the death of Jos. H. Winter, which occurred at his home at Waldo on Sunday morning about 10 o'clock of acute indigestion.

He had been a resident of Waldo for the past twenty years, and leaves a wife and three sons to mourn his demise. He was a prominent Mason and Odd Fellow and took an active part in their work during his life time.

To his credit it can be said that he was the first man in Florida to build a cypress tank, and he was for many years employed on the old F. C. & P. to construct them throughout this State along their lines.

His funeral occurred at Waldo Monday and was largely attended by the numerous friends of the family there.

Resolutions by Sunday School.

The Rocky Point Sabbath school has adopted the following resolutions upon the death of little Elsie, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Crown:

First, That whereas, we bow to the will of our Heavenly Father, who, in his wisdom, has taken the little one from us, we extend to the bereaved family our heart-felt sympathy.

Second, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, a copy be published in The Gainesville Sun, and a copy be spread upon the records of the Sabbath school.

It is the only safe remedy for infants and children as it contains no opiates or other narcotic drugs, and children like Foley's Honey and Tar. Careful mothers keep a bottle in the house. Jolly Hunting Party.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:
Commodore R. W. Beall, Dr. J. A. Batton and Morgan Higginbottom left yesterday for Trenton, where they will pitch tent and remain in camp for some time enjoying the fine hunting in that section. They will be joined later by Dr. Herzog, who will spend a few days with them in the woods.

ALACHUA FARMERS ARE NOW HAPPY LOT

DEAL CLOSED ON ALL COTTON
IN THAT SECTION.

Forty Thousand Dollars in Cash Distributed to Growers There by This Big Sale.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

Alachua farmers are again happy, having disposed of all their hold-over cotton which has been a drag on the market for the past several months.

There has been $40,000 in cash turned loose there within the past few days, and this section is especially happy, as it has had a tendency to open up trade and put some of the good hard cash in circulation.

This large deal enabled the farmers to pay their obligations and have some reserve left over, which will assist them to run for the coming season; besides, the merchants will now be enabled to meet their obligations, which makes things right all the way round.

The change has been remarkably noticeable in trade circles already, and business is better in that place than it has been for months, notwithstanding the fact that this is generally the dull season with them.

Many of the growers will not plant as heavily the coming season as they have in the past, and the growers hope to regulate the prices to some degree in this way.

A Religious Author's Statement.

For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy. J. W. McCollum & Co.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

First Car of Cabbage.

The first car of cabbage for this season left here Tuesday. The car was loaded by different growers and was consigned to New York. In a few days the shipments will be heavy, and growers expect good returns.

The warm weather has played havoc with lettuce, sufficient cold weather not having been experienced to cause it to head, and if cold weather does not come soon all of the crop will go to seed, as is already the case with many fields.

CATARRH MUST GO

And Hawking, Spitting, Snuffles Must

Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) will give the sufferer from catarrh relief in five minutes.

It is such a remarkable cure, and so positive in its action, that J. W. McCollum & Co. go so far as to guarantee it to cure catarrh or money back.

A complete outfit, which consists of a hard rubber pocket inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei, and a unique dropper for filling the inhaler, only costs one dollar, and if an extra bottle is afterwards needed the price is only 50 cents.

Hyomei is a healing, antiseptic balsam, taken from the mighty eucalyptus trees in the health-giving forests of Australia, where disease of the respiratory tract are unknown.

All the sufferer has to do is to inhale the antiseptic air of Hyomei over the inflamed parts where the germs are entrenched, three or four times a day.

It cures coughs, colds, asthma, hay fever and croup without stomach dosing.

AW RANKIN KILLED AND FLED WEeping

Night Rider Tells of Pleading For Life of Man Who Was Cruelly Murdered.

UNION CITY, Tenn., Jan. 26.—Nervously holding his hands, Ed Marshall, pleaded for complicity in the murder of Capt. Rankin by night riders this afternoon in his own words. The largest crowd that has gathered at any night rider trials breathlessly listened to every word uttered by Marshall. Subjected to a rigid examination, the witness several times became confused and gave apparently conflicting versions of his testimony.

He first saw the night riders when they came to his home and gave him some orders. He was told that unless he joined them and his wife and baby were killed and his property burned. He went with Fred Pinton, reportedly to hang, to the rendezvous and took the path.

He met with them a number of times and staunchly denied participating in any crime. He knew few members of the band, and could not be sure who the leader was. He had heard that the leader was Fehring.

Filed for Victims' Lives.

Walnut Log, becoming convinced that Col. Taylor and Capt. Rankin were to be killed, he said, he pleaded with the leader to save their lives. Falling in this, he mounted his horse and rode away before the firing began.

"I was sobbing," he said, "and if Col. Taylor knew what I did for him, he would embrace me now."

It is expected that the argument will be begun on Wednesday.

Official Poet a Witness.

Warren Morris, who, by his confession was the "official poet" of the night riders, was the first witness yesterday. He had not seen the defendant at any meetings of the band, but had heard Marshall was a member. When Capt. Rankin was killed, the witnesses heard one of the night riders interceding for Rankin, but did not know who it was.

"Mose" Barkis, an Assyrian, probably the only member of his race who has taken the night rider oath, was the second witness. Barkis is now living in Hickman, Ky., where he is engaged in the mercantile business.

In broken English he told the jury how he, for fear that his property would be destroyed, had joined the outlaws, and of the two meetings he attended. He knew nothing of Ed Marshall's connection with them.

his word has never been disputed by his neighbors.

Notice is hereby given that the firm of S. G. Gay & Company, composed of S. G. Gay and Perry M. Colson, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. (Signed.)

Four People Ride to Death On a Colorado Avalanche

GRAND JUNCTION, COL., Jan. 25.—Four men were killed and more than a score had narrow escapes from death when an avalanche of snow swept over the Camp Byrd mine at Duray late yesterday. The four men were talking in the clock house when almost without warning thousands of tons of snow, rocks and dirt swept down the mountain side. The party was directly in the path of the avalanche and the men were hurled into the canyon and covered with snow.

Caught in the steep mountain trails by the blizzard which raged all day are eight six-horse teams and the Camp Byrd "bullion" stage, carrying $6,000 in gold and many passengers. Great anxiety is felt for their safety.

The avalanche came down the mountain side with irresistible force. The men working in the mine fled for their lives, but the shaft building was not in the path of the slide.

A teamster saw the slide coming and made a desperate effort to drive out of the way. He was caught and buried. His dog rushed at the snow, began to dig furiously and kept at it until he reached the buried man, who crawled out unharmed.

"Dad" Austin, hero of many a wild ride through the mountains and one of the best stage drivers in the West, heard the slide when it started. He was driving a six-horse stage filled with people and the horses were plunging along at a gallop when he recognized the sound. Instantly he threw all his weight on the brake and succeeded in stopping the stage on the very edge of the avalanche. The two leaders were cut off by the mass of snow and debris and carried down the canyon hundreds of feet below.

Congress Eulogizes Man Who Stuck to His Post

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—Pausing for a moment in its legislative activity, the House of Representatives yesterday listened to an eulogy of John R. Binns, the Marconi operator aboard the trans-Atlantic liner "Republic," who remained at his post until the ship went down, following her collision Saturday with the "Florida." Mr. Boutell of Illinois was given unanimous consent to address the House "on a matter of public interest."

After referring to the collision, Mr. Boutell, amid loud applause, said that throughout the whole critical period "there was one silent actor in the tragedy whose name should be immortalized." He specially mentioned Binns by name and in conclusion said:

"Binns has given the world a splendid illustration of the heroism that dwells in many who are doing the quiet, unnoticed task of life. Is it not an inspiration for all of us to feel that there are heroes for every emergency and that in human life no danger is so great that some Jack Binns is not ready to face it."

SENATOR TALIAFERRO WILL DO ALL HE CAN

TO RETAIN TARIFF ON FOREIGN LUMBER.

Florida Having Borne Burdens of Cuban Reciprocity Should Be Let Alone in Tariff Reduction.

From Wednesday's Daily:

Replying to a letter of B. F. Hampton, secretary of the Gainesville Board of Trade, Senator James P. Taliaferro writes from Washington as follows:

"My Dear Mr. Hampton: Your letter of December 19, inclosing resolutions of the Gainesville Board of Trade opposing the removal of the tariff on lumber, came duly to hand and would have been acknowledged sooner but for the holidays.

"Those who are contending for a reduction of the tariff on lumber argue that it would produce more revenue, conserve our forest resources and insure cheaper developing material. In view of the agitation for the preservation of our national resources and the demand for additional revenue to balance our increasing deficiencies, there would seem to be possible obstacles in the way of holding the lumber tariff as it now stands.

"For my own part I shall contend that, Florida having borne the burdens of Cuban reciprocity, should be let alone in the matter of tariff reduction, and that any system of revision shall embrace an equal distribution of tariff benefits or burdens. Besides, it would seem to be a discrimination to do away with the protection of an industry just about the time of the disappearance of the forests in the Northwest and North. Under any circumstances, your Board of Trade may be assured that I shall do what I can in behalf of all the industries of Florida."

DEPUTY SHERIFF IS SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

FORT MEADE, Jan. 26.—Deputy Sheriff J. M. Brown, while making his rounds on Saturday night between 11 and 12, was waylaid by a negro, Joe Daniels, who had hid behind a large oak, and emptied the contents of a shotgun at Mr. Brown. Mr. Brown lies in a serious condition. The physicians extracted sixteen bullets from his right hand and wrist. The rest of the full load entered his thigh and side, which have so far not been removed. Daniels escaped, and although bloodhounds were immediately put on his track, he is still at large.

The DeFuniak Springs postoffice was robbed last Friday, the burglars getting away with $700. The work is thought to be that of professionals.

FEARED TOTAL LOSS OF HAIR

Scalp had been Scaly for Some Time—After an Attack of Typhoid Fever his Hair Began to Fall Out by the Handful—Now It is

THICKER THAN EVER
THANKS TO CUTICURA

"About two years ago I was troubled with my head being scaly, like dandruff but heavier—although I wash my head once a week always. It never gave me any trouble such as itching or smarting and I never noticed any falling of the hair. But shortly after that I had an attack of typhoid fever and I was out of the hospital possibly two months when I first noticed the loss of hair, my scalp being still scaly. I started to use a dandruff cure to no effect whatever. And I used a quinine preparation quite freely which did no good either. Whether it was the effect of the fever or some scalp disease I don't know, but I had actually lost hope of saving any hair at all. I could brush it off my coat by the handful. It got so bad that I didn't need to comb it any more—in fact I was afraid to. My brother, who had used the Cuticura Remedies with satisfaction, advised me to try them. After using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and nearly a box of Cuticura Ointment, the change was surprising. My scalp is now clear and healthy as could be and my hair thicker than ever, whereas six months ago I had my mind made up to be bald in a short time. I will have a photograph taken later and send you one. William F. Steese, 5812 Broad St., Pittsburg, Penn., May 7 and 21, '08."

SUWANNEE SHOALS POWER COMPANY MAY

FURNISH GAINESVILLE WITH POWER FOR ALL PURPOSES.

Electric Railroad from Lake City to Gainesville via Worthington Springs Among Possibilities of Future.

From Sunday's Daily Sun:

Another important event is scheduled for the Greater Gainesville, one which will prove of great benefit to the city and surrounding section.

The move in question is the electric railway from Lake City to Gainesville via Worthington Springs. The proponents of the enterprise say it will be one of the many improvements to come our way during the present year.

This has been brought about by the Suwannee River Shoals Power Company, who have been at work for some time disposing of stock and have succeeded in floating the bond issue necessary to its successful promotion.

Not only is the plan a feasible one, but parties not interested say it will be the biggest thing for Gainesville and Lake City in years. Capitalists all over the State are stockholders in the company.

It is proposed to dam up the Suwannee river near Suwannee Shoals and thereby secure sufficient power to furnish not only the electric railway, but all the towns and manufacturing concerns along the line that the intended road will traverse.

The road will traverse a very fertile section, which at the present time is lying idle, and will also touch many valuable farms that are already being worked. It will give an outlet to these people and will make life along the line all that could be desired.

The venture will prove a big thing for the Worthington Springs people, as it will then be a close rival to Suwannee Springs. If the power is anything like what it is claimed to be the company can extend the lines to other places.

With a tourist hotel, a large and first-class commercial man's hotel, an apartment hotel, together with the big paper factory, all for the year 1909, Greater Gainesville undoubtedly has a much brighter future, and besides all these, we are certain of work commencing on the Government building and many thousands of dollars to be spent here the coming summer on the University buildings.

"I suffered habitually from constipation. Doan's Regulets relieved and strengthened the bowels, so that they have been regular ever since."—A. E.

SPRING TERM U. S. COURT MEETS FEB. 1

IMPORTANT CASES TO BE TRIED AT THIS SESSION.

The Brooks Counterfeit Case Will Be Among Most Prominent of Session—Some Whiskey Cases.

The spring session of the United States court for the Northern district of Florida will convene in this city at 9 o'clock on the morning of Monday, February 1.

This will be the second session of the United States court convening in Gainesville since Alachua county has been transferred to the Northern district, and naturally a great deal of interest is centered in the session.
This court will bring together people from all over this section who are interested, directly or indirectly, and a large number of visitors will no doubt be here. There are a number of important cases, among which is the case of the Brooks boys, who are charged with counterfeiting. It will be remembered that these men were arrested in Levy county several months ago, were placed in prison at Bronson, later made their escape and surrendered to the authorities of Alachua county early this month, laboring under the impression that their trial would occur within a few days.

Emmett Wilson of Pensacola is U.
S. district attorney at the present time,
but he will be succeeded by Hon. Fred Cubberly, who has been appointed to that position, but the confirmation of whom it is learned has not yet been made. In that event Col. Wilson will act in that professional capacity. Hon.
W. B. Sheppard is judge of the Northern district. Fred W. Marsh is clerk, while A. M. Cushman of this city has recently been appointed deputy clerk.

School Entertainment at Windsor.

Windsor, Jan. 23.—On Friday evening, 22nd inst., a delightful surprise entertainment was given by the school children in honor of their beloved teacher, Mrs. H. Latimer, also for parents and friends. Recitations, songs and dialogues well rendered filled up a pleasant hour's program.

Mrs. Hauf and son, Guy, of Crugers,
N. Y., delighted all with a fine violin solo by Master Guy, with guitar accompaniment by Mrs. Hauf. Mrs.
Lent of Crugers, New York, gave a nice talk, contrasting the schools of sixty years ago with the present.
Mrs. Latimer is scoring fine success as teacher, and with her lovely children has won all hearts.

Large Acreage in Vegetables.

W. M. Daughtrey of Williston is among the visitors to the city. He formerly resided here and has a large number of acquaintances who are always glad to meet him. He states that the acreage of spring vegetable in the Williston section will be large this year and that a number of the truckers already have their spring stuff started.

Returned From South Carolina.

Mrs. Helen T. Chesnut and daughter,
Miss Ellen, have returned from South Carolina, where they have been visiting relatives since last fall. They were accompanied by Master John Chesnut, Jr., who has been spending the time with them, and all are now stopping with John Chesnut at his residence in this city.

You would not delay taking Foley's Kidney Remedy at the first sign of kidney or bladder trouble if you realized that neglect might result in Bright's disease or diabetes. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects irregularities and cures all kidney and bladder disorders. J. W. McCollum & Co.

If you will take Foley's Orino Laxative until the bowels become regular you will not have to take purgatives constantly, as Foley's Orino Laxative positively cures chronic constipation and bilious liver. Pleasant to take.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is the best of all medicines for the cure of diseases, disorders and weaknesses peculiar to women. It is the only preparation of its kind devised by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in the diseases of women.

It is a safe medicine in any condition of the system.
THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol and no injurious habit-forming drugs and which creates no craving for such stimulants.

THE ONE REMEDY so good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on each outside bottle-wrapper and attest to its truthfulness of the same under oath.

It is sold by medicine dealers everywhere, and any dealer who hasn't it can get it. Don't take a substitute of unknown composition for this medicine of known composition. No counterfeit is as good as the genuine and the druggist who says something else is "just as good as Dr. Pierce's" is either mistaken or is trying to deceive you for his own selfish benefit. Such a man is not to be trusted. He is trifling with your most priceless possession—your health—may be your life itself. See that you get what you ask for.
